

Romeo and Juliet Knowledge Organiser

Fate/Destiny	Fate is a power that people believe causes and controls all events, so that you cannot change or control the way things will happen. In Romeo and Juliet, the two main character's fate is decided before the play has even begun and their destiny does not change but sets a series of events in order which change many character's fates.	Key Words  Subject Terminology	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Prologue 2. Impulsive 3. Patriarchal 4. Soliloquy 5. Oxymoron 6. Matriarchal 7. Foreshadowing 8. Naivety 9. Fate 10. Freewill 11. Catalyst 12. Protagonist 13. Devastation 14. Tragedy 15. Sympathy 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A part of the play that is at the beginning and tells the story. 2. Acting suddenly without planning. 3. Male led 4. A speech spoken to themselves not the audience. 5. Two words used together that have opposite meanings. 6. Female led 7. A warning or indication of a future event. 8. Lack of experience and being innocent. 9. A power that causes and controls all events. 10. The power of acting without the constraint of necessity or fate/ 11. A person or thing that precipitates an event. 12. The main character or main characters in the play. 13. Severe or overwhelming shock or grief. 14. An event causing great suffering or pain 15. Feeling sad/sorrow
Patriarchal Society	A society that is run solely by men. The man holds the power, leadership and control. This is the opposite of a matriarchal society.
Tragedy	A very sad event or situation, especially one involving death or suffering or a play about death and suffering. Romeo and Juliet is a tragedy play written by William Shakespeare. It is also a tragedy in that there are characters who suffer and died throughout the entirety of the play.
Conflict	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Conflict is an argument or disagreement between a set of people. 2. An active disagreement between people with opposite ideas or principles. 3. Fighting between two or more groups of people or countries. In Romeo and Juliet, many of the main characters experience conflict through family feuds or older family ties which are difficult to break.	Literacy Focus 	Full stops (.) Full stops should always be used at the end of a sentence and should always be followed by a capital letter. Capital letters (C) Capital letters should be used for all proper nouns (names, countries, books and TV shows) Exclamation marks (!) Exclamation marks are used to show a word, phrase or sentence is an exclamation. Semi-colon (;) The semi-colon is used to indicate a pause, typically between two main clauses. This is more pronounced than a comma.	